Dear Madam:

RE: [REDACTED] - Cooper, Darltie

Although we are in receipt of our Form B-11, Notice to Employer of Claim for Benefits, attached to your letter of January 11, we assume that you have no objection to our payment of benefits to Darltie Cooper, but in the extent thereof as earned upon wages in your employ.

In order to determine Darltie Cooper's right to receive benefits and/or your claim for a refund, it will be necessary to receive your answers to the following questions:

1. By what firm (name and address) are you insured under the Workmens Compensation Law?
2. What was the nature of the award granted - amount, period covered, temporary - partial disability, etc.?
3. Was Darltie Cooper carried on your payroll after May 19 to obtain his goodwill and in the expectation of his services in the future?
4. Did you consider the $177.46 paid to Darltie Cooper in excess of his $50.00 salary as a loan; and, if so, was this advance repaid when he received his checks for Workmen's Compensation?
5. What salary, if any, was paid between the date of injury and award?

Your prompt attention to this matter, regardless of whether you are now interested in a credit for the amount of taxes voluntarily paid, will be appreciated so that we may determine Darltie Cooper's right to receive benefits under our Law.

Please address your reply to the attention of the Adjustment Unit, Benefits Bureau.

Very truly yours,

Edward J. Hall
